

First Security Bank

Statewide, Arkansas

Brown Engineers has supported First Security Bank's architect with mechanical and electrical engineering for multiple new construction bank branches in Arkansas. Below, the two-story Benton Branch contains approximately 10,000 sq. ft. of interior space, constructed of brick veneer over a steel frame. Systems designed by Brown Engineers include:

- plumbing
- fire protection
- fire alarm
- HVAC
- lighting
- power distribution

